

GENERAL INFORMATION

- No illegal drugs are permitted on board. The Bounty Hunter is a zero tolerance vessel, And you will be reported to the Coast Guard and State Police.
- No hard liquor or wine is permitted on board. A reasonable amount of beer is permitted. The Captain has final say on what is reasonable and reserves the right to inspect all bags and coolers.
- Wear proper footwear. Boat shoes, sneakers or rubber boots will only be permitted.
Please do not wear Work boots, Shoes with leather heels and soles, Black rubber heels and soles, FLIP FLOPS or SANDALS they will not be allowed on board
- Travel light. Please do not over pack. Coolers for fish should be left in your vehicle. Your food and beverages can be stored in your own cooler or can be placed in our refrigerator . When practical all coolers will be removed from the boat prior to departure. Any coolers allowed to stay on board must be plastic or fiberglass. Metal Coolers will not be allowed.
- If you are CanyonTuna fishing, the boat carries enough ice to keep 15 to 20 Tuna in prime condition. Once the legal limit (3 Yellowfin / Paying Customer) is reached the boat will leave for home.
- No whole tuna will be allowed to leave the boat. All fish will be quartered.
- Charters canceled due to weather, ocean conditions or for any other reason beyond the Captains control will be rescheduled. If rescheduling cannot be done due to time, weather or schedule constraints, deposits will carry over to the following year. Please Note that rain is not a valid reason to cancel a charter. Deposits are not refundable for any reason. Not Showing up on day of sailing or Cancellations within 10 days of sailing date Forfeit all Deposits
- Do not forget our Mates. They work hard to make your day an enjoyable one. All your fish will be cleaned and packed in bags for your trip home. Tipping is customary and 15% - 20% is typical.

Please make everyone in your group aware of these rules. It will ensure that all of us will have a safe and enjoyable day.

Captain Paul